

Key Knowledge

- To know the name of two continents (Europe and Asia)
- To know that an ocean is a large body of water.
- To know the name of two of the world's oceans (Atlantic Ocean and Pacific Ocean).
- To name some key similarities between our local area and a small area of a contrasting non-European country,
- To name some key differences between our local area and a small area of a contrasting non-European country,
- To know that life elsewhere in the world is often different to ours. To know that life elsewhere in the world often has similarities to ours.
- To know that physical features means any feature of any area that is on the Earth naturally.
- To know that human features means any feature of an area that was made or built by humans.

Key Skills

- Locating two of the world's seven continents on a world map and globe.
- Locating two of the world's oceans (Atlantic Ocean and Pacific Ocean) on a world map using an atlas.
- Recognise some physical features in our locality.
- Recognise some human features in our locality.

Do you remember learning?

- The name of the country we live in?
- The name of the continent that country is in?

Key Vocabulary

- City, land, river, ocean, place, port, harbour.
- Features, physical feature, human feature, similar, different.
- Continent, country.

